

Company Profile

Baillie Lodges is an intimate portfolio of luxury lodges setting new benchmarks for premium experiential travel in Australian style. Set in exclusive locations of unique natural or cultural significance, the boutique properties appeal to the discerning global traveller seeking a remarkable experience. Baillie Lodges was founded in 2003 by life and business partners James and Hayley Baillie, who together bring a wealth of high end tourism experience to this dynamic venture.

Capella Lodge on World Heritage-listed Lord Howe Island was the first property in Baillie Lodges' portfolio. Treasured as one of the world's 'best kept secrets' this spectacular subtropical island paradise is fringed by the world's most southerly coral reef with some 500 species of fish and more than 90 corals flourishing in clear, warm waters perfect for snorkelling. Capella Lodge rests at the foot of dramatically rising twin peaks, Mounts Gower and Lidgbird and is the only island accommodation commanding spectacular ocean, lagoon and mountain views. The lodge's contemporary luxury coupled with the destination's nature-based experiences make Capella Lodge the preferred option for guests seeking a sophisticated island escape.

Globally celebrated and multi-award winning Southern Ocean Lodge on Kangaroo Island is Australia's most acclaimed luxury wilderness lodge. Contemporary suites extend along the rugged limestone clifftops of one of Australia's most remote and pristine locations, bordered by National Parks and boasting panoramic views of the Southern Ocean and coastal wilderness. Australia's answer to the Galapagos, Kangaroo Island is teeming with native wildlife and guests encounter sea lions, fur seals, kangaroos and koalas up close. Custom Australian and international design features throughout, with local artworks creating a timeless ambience. Fine, locally sourced cuisine and premium South Australian wines offer guests a real taste of Kangaroo Island.

In 2017, Baillie Lodges launched a new era of Australian luxury lodging with the reopening of iconic outback camp Longitude 131° at Uluru-Kata Tjuta following a significant redesign. Renowned as the spiritual heart of Australia, the 'Red Centre' is rich in Indigenous culture and rugged outback beauty. Safari-style tented pavilions float above rust-red dunes, offering guests a luxurious sanctuary from the elements, and a view of Uluru from the end of the bed. By night, designer swags are unfurled outdoors for stargazing under clear indigo skies. Guests explore the desert, learning the living creation stories of the land's Indigenous custodians. Longitude 131° is the only accommodation with views to both World Heritage-listed icons Uluru and Kata Tjuta.

Planning is now underway for Baillie Lodges' next venture, a luxury wilderness retreat on Tasmania's rugged southeast coast. Set to open in 2020, Remarkable Lodge on the picturesque Tasman Peninsula will rest on its own spectacular headland close to the World Heritage-listed Port Arthur historic site and offering sea views extending to Tasman Island and Cape Pillar, home to the Southern Hemisphere's highest vertical sea cliffs and prolific marine life.

The Baillie Lodges properties are recognised for their standout natural locations, architectural integrity, locally sourced fine cuisine, first name service and dynamic approach to ecological sustainability. Each offers guests a real experience of the destination, a genuine sense of place. A spirit of generosity is at the heart of a Baillie Lodges stay. Capella Lodge, Southern Ocean Lodge and Longitude 131° together deliver a unique and exclusive Australian luxury experience.

Capella Lodge, Longitude 131° and Southern Ocean Lodge are honoured as founding members of Luxury Lodges of Australia, celebrating a new era of Australian experiential luxury accommodation and adventure.
