Southern Ocean Lodge on Kangaroo Island Named in TIME World's Greatest Places List

As works continue in the rebuild of Baillie Lodges flagship property Southern Ocean Lodge, TIME has named the luxury lodge on the wild west coast of South Australia's Kangaroo Island as one of 50 extraordinary travel destinations around the world for 2023.

Today's announcement details the third annual list of TIME's World's Greatest Places. To compile this list, TIME solicited nominations of places – including countries, regions, cities and towns – from its international network of correspondents and contributors, with an eye toward those offering new and exciting experiences.

Baillie Lodges founder James Baillie said today's recognition in the TIME World's Greatest Places 2023 list was a wonderful boost of encouragement as the team prepared to reopen the globally celebrated luxury lodge in December this year.

"We are full steam ahead on the build on the coast of Kangaroo Island and we can't wait to reopen Southern Ocean Lodge and welcome guests back to this special part of the world once again," Mr Baillie said.

The full TIME World's Greatest Places list will be featured in the April 10 / April 17, 2023, double issue of TIME, available on newsstands on Friday, March 17.

Editors' Notes: Baillie Lodges is a growing portfolio of luxury lodges renowned for setting benchmarks in premium experiential travel. Set in exclusive locations of unique natural or cultural significance, the boutique properties appeal to the discerning global traveller seeking a remarkable experience. The Australia-based collection was founded in 2003 by James and Hayley Baillie and includes Longitude 131° at Uluru-Kata Tjuta, Capella Lodge on Lord Howe Island, Silky Oaks Lodge at the Daintree Rainforest, and The Louise in the Barossa Valley. Flagship property Southern Ocean Lodge on Kangaroo Island was razed in the 2020 bushfires and its rebuild is in progress, with reopening slated for November 2023. In 2019, an affiliate of KSL Capital Partners acquired Baillie Lodges with the aim to further expand the unique collection of luxury lodges. The 2022 addition of Chile's esteemed Tierra Hotels group marks a continuation of the collection's foray into international waters, joining the Clayoquot Wilderness Lodge on Canada's Vancouver Island and New Zealand's Huka Lodge. Baillie Lodges' Australian properties are honoured as members of Luxury Lodges of Australia. For more information, please visit baillielodges.com.au.
